

Mail received by the College which is directed to the Board will be opened at the College, unless it is addressed to an individual Board member. If addressed to an individual Board member the College will either provide the trustee with the mail at an upcoming Board meeting, forward the mail to the home address of the